

4R Class Charter

Children respect these rights by...	4R's Rights	Adults respect these rights by...
Joining in discussions Taking turns when we are talking Asking questions	A right to say what you think should happen. (Article 12)	Letting the children in have an opinion about things that affect them. Having a worries/suggestion box in the class to allow things to be discussed. Listening to the children's ideas.
Not looking in people's trays, bags or pencil cases. Not copying.	A right to privacy. (Article 16)	Not going into children's trays and bags unless it is very important to do so. Not sharing private information unless it is very important to do so.
Keeping the classroom tidy Not wasting food Making sure we eat our dinner Putting our toys away after wet play. Not being silly in the dinner hall.	A right to clean water, nutritious food and a clean environment. (Article 24)	Keeping the classroom tidy Allowing children to use their water bottles when it is appropriate.
Always trying our best Listening to the teacher Showing respect to others Not distracting others Looking at the teacher	A right to an education. (Article 28)	Allowing children to ask for help Making lessons as fun as possible Making sure the work is not too easy / not too hard
Asking for help Practicing lots Listening Showing determination Never giving up Persevering Trying our best.	Education should develop each child's personality and talents to the full. (Article 29)	Giving each child the opportunity to learn. Giving children time to practice so that they can improve Spending some time with everyone
Letting others join in Asking others if they want to play Not being mean to others	A right to relax and play. (Article 31)	Finishing lessons in time for break Helping children to stay safe on the playground. Rewarding good behaviour

We respect this right by:		4R's Rights	Respect in 4R
Children	Adults
Joining in discussions Taking turns when we are talking Asking questions	Letting the children in have an opinion about things that affect them. Having a worries/suggestion box in the class to allow things to be discussed. Listening to the children's ideas.	A right to say what you think should happen. (Article 12)	4R's Class Charter ALL children have the rights in the UNCRC.    UNCRC = United Nation's Convention on the Rights of the Child
Not looking in people's trays, bags or pencil cases. Not copying.	Not going into children's trays and bags unless it is very important to do so. Not sharing private information unless it is very important to do so.	A right to privacy. (Article 16)
Keeping the classroom tidy Not wasting food Making sure we eat our dinner Putting our toys away after wet play. Not being silly in the dinner hall.	Keeping the classroom tidy Allowing children to use their water bottles when it is appropriate.	A right to clean water, nutritious food and a clean environment. (Article 24)
Always trying our best Listening to the teacher Showing respect to others Not distracting others Looking at the teacher	Allowing children to ask for help Making lessons as fun as possible Making sure the work is not too easy / not too hard	A right to an education. (Article 28)
Asking for help Practicing lots Listening Showing determination Never giving up Persevering Trying our best.	Giving each child the opportunity to learn. Giving children time to practice so that they can improve Spending some time with everyone	Education should develop each child's personality and talents to the full. (Article 29)
Letting others join in Asking others if they want to play Not being mean to others	Finishing lessons in time for break Helping children to stay safe on the playground. Rewarding good behaviour	A right to relax and play. (Article 31)	